The Master's Message

Dear Brethren,

A group of us enjoyed the 156th Annual Grand Lodge Communication where RWB Vern Turner was elected to be our Grand Master for 2017. Congratulations goes out to him and his Grand Officers. This was a wonderful event and a great time to meet and converse with brothers from other Lodges from all over Colorado.

We have rescheduled Zach Benson's Fellow Craft degree because of last week's ice storm. We look forward to conferring this degree on Wednesday February 8th.

An Officer's Meeting is scheduled for February 15th to finalize the 2017 budget and further discuss Committee assignments for the coming year.

Our Regular Communication Wednesday February 22 will be an Education Night and will feature guest speaker Bro. Dane Barnes who will present a program on the origins of the Knights Templar.

Don't forget Brothers, that the month of February features Valentine's Day, so be sure to do something special for the special Lady in your life.

Fraternally,

Kirk Holwell

A Paper Related to the Origins of the Knights Templar

In the year 1116. A.D, an Order of Chivalry known as 'The Poor Knights of Christ and the Temple of Solomon,' first appeared in the charters of history. Yet, if under the Victorian-acceptance of Templar History, the Knight Templar didn't found until 1116 A.D, why do their own founding documents mention activity from ten years before? How do sources such as the Bernini Chronicle, written by an individual who was alive in the period and familiar with the Templars, shed new light on the Order? Of equal importance to the date 1116 A.D, is the date 1309 A.D. This presentation presents a theory concerning the origins of the Knights Templar.
